BLS International wins contract with Embassy of Thailand 3rd win in last three months

New Delhi, 1st Mar, 2021: BLS International, a tech-enabled specialty service provider for governments and diplomatic missions worldwide, today announced that it has commenced accepting visa applications for the Embassy of Thailand in Delhi. The company has expertise in providing visa, consular, citizen, e-governance, attestation, biometric, e-visa and retail services across the globes.

Commenting on the win, Shikhar Aggarwal, Jt. Managing Director, BLS International, said, "We are pleased to partner with the Embassy of Thailand and will ensure a smooth, efficient and delightful experience for the applicants. Our endeavor has always been to facilitate best-in-class services to the travelers by creating value for our stakeholders. We at BLS have reinvented the wheel of visa services by making it a holistic solution with dedicated and professional teams that bring highest levels of customer satisfaction."

This is the third contract signed by the company recently in addition to globally recognized robust portfolio of visa, consular and citizen services. With this contract, BLS International will be providing visa application services through its centres. It clearly reflects company's focus on efficiency and continuous excellence in its operations.
